OBJECTIVE

I am a computer science student trying to get this training to get knowledge and experience in the Backend, proficient in PHP and C++, with good skills in problem-solving, obsessed with the gained knowledge and building projects in the field.

EXPERIENCE

I am a self-learner student and I'm trying my best to improve my skills and how to learn, so unfortunately, I have no experience in any company or community, but I built some projects, and I published them on GitHub. You can check them in my account.
